DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-17 have been examined.
2. Claims 1-17 have been rejected.

Priority

3. Applicant's claim for domestic priority under 35 U.S.C. 119(e) is acknowledged.

Specification

4. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because "also disclosed" at line 3 and "the present invention" at lines 5-6 and line 7 of the abstract are phrases which can be implied, and should therefore be avoided. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

5. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

The phrase "embodiment of the present" should be changed to --embodiment of the present invention-- at par [0023], line 1.

The words "they do" should be changed to --it does-- at par [0023], line 6.

Appropriate correction is required. The citations above are not meant to be exhaustive, and are provided as examples. The applicant is advised to correct other similar errors as required throughout the specification.

Claim Objections

6. Claims [c0001], [c0005], [c0012] and [c0013] are objected to because of the following informalities:

Claim [c0001] has two items denoted by the bullet letter "(c)," claim [c0005] has two items denoted by the bullet letter "(d)," and claim [c0013] is missing bullet lettering.

The numbering of claim [c0005] should be modified from "[c005]" to --c[0005]-- to conform to the numbering of the other claims.

Claim [c0012] recites "The system of claim 105." This is presumed to be a typographical error. The examiner presumes the applicant intends for claim [c0012] to depend from claim [c0009] and will apply prior art accordingly.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

7. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

8. Claims [c0001]-[c0008] and [c0017] are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

The methods claimed are not directed to statutory subject matter, in that they do not appear to necessitate the use of hardware to accomplish the steps therein.

The examiner will apply prior art to these claims as best understood, with the assumption that applicant will amend to overcome the stated 101 rejections.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

9. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 2163

10. Claims [c0001]–[c0003], [c0005]–[c0007], [c0009]–[c0011], and [c0013]–[c0015] are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bohm et al. (US 5,404,507, hereafter “Bohm”).

In regards to claim [c0001], Bohm teaches a method for comparing a query against data contained within a database comprising the steps of:

- (a) receiving said query (col. 6, lines 27-29);
- (b) extracting a plurality of attributes from said query (col. 6, lines 27-33, where a target word is interpreted to be an “attribute”);
- (c) converting said plurality of attributes from said query, using at least one linguistic pattern matching analytical tool (col. 4, lines 30-37, abbreviations; col. 5, lines 19-20, trigrams), into a plurality of linguistic pattern strings (Fig. 3, ref characters 303 and 304; col. 3, lines 48-53, 57-60; col. 5, lines 60-65; col. 6, lines 27-33, 39-42, 49-52, where the search expression is interpreted to be a “linguistic pattern string”);
- (d) comparing said plurality of linguistic pattern strings with at least one stored linguistic pattern string from at least one stored attribute contained within said database for providing a set of matches (col. 3, lines 61 – col. 4, line 8; col. 5, lines 9-11; col. 6, lines 27-52, 65-68; col. 7, lines 29-34);
- (e) analyzing each match of said set of matches, using said at least one linguistic pattern matching analytical tool, to provide at least one set of matched attributes (col. 7, lines 8-11, 15-28, 36-39); and

(f) combining all of said at least one set of matched attributes to provide a combined result (col. 6, lines 66-68; col. 7, lines 8-28).

In regards to claim [c0002], Bohm teaches the method of claim 1, further including the step of filtering said combined result according to pre-selected criteria (col. 2, lines 5-8; col. 8, lines 11-19, 30).

In regards to claim [c0003], Bohm teaches the method of claim 2, further including the step of filtering said combined result according to matching a selected attribute (col. 2, lines 5-8; col. 7, lines 15-28, 58-59; col. 8, lines 11-19, 30).

Claims [c0005]–[c0007] are rejected with the same rationale as given for claims [c0001] - [c0003]. In this case, the preamble is not necessary to “breathe life” into the claim. Rather, the limitations are able to stand alone.

Claims [c0009]–[c0011] are rejected with the same rationale as given for claims [c0001] - [c0003], and Fig. 1 and col. 2, line 47 – col. 3, line 28.

Claims [c0013]–[c0015] are rejected with the same rationale as given for claims [c0001] - [c0003].

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

11. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

12. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

13. Claims [c0004], [c0008], [c0012], [c0016], and [c0017] are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bohm in view of Wheeler et al. (US 6,618,727, hereafter "Wheeler") and Lambert (US 6,529,892).

In regards to claim [c0004],

"The method of claim 1, further comprising the step of employing a Metaphone based analysis, a Phonex based analysis, a Soundex based analysis, an N-gram based analysis, an edit-distance based analysis and a dictionaries based analysis,"

Bohm teaches all of the limitations of claim 1 (see 102(b) rejection of claim [c0001]), and also teaches an N-gram based analysis (Bohm, col. 5, lines 41-50), an edit-distance based analysis (Bohm, col. 6, lines 7-14), and a dictionaries based analysis (Bohm, col. 3, line 57 – col. 4, line 14, where "dictionary" is defined by The American Heritage College Dictionary, Fourth Edition, as "A list of words stored in machine-readable form for reference, as by spelling-checking software.").

Bohm does not expressly teach a Metaphone based analysis, a Phonex based analysis, and a Soundex based analysis. Wheeler teaches a Metaphone based analysis and a Soundex based analysis (Wheeler, col. 11, lines 30-38). Lambert teaches a Phonex based analysis (Lambert, col. 24, line 42 – col. 25, line 11). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the applicant's invention to apply the metaphone and soundex based analyses disclosed in Wheeler and the phonix based analysis disclosed in Lambert with the search method of Bohm to gain the advantage of improved search intelligence.

Claim [c0008] is rejected with the same rationale as given for claim [c0004]. In this case, the preamble is not necessary to "breathe life" into the claim. Rather, the limitations are able to stand alone.

Claim [c0012] is rejected with the same rationale as given for claim [c0004], and Fig. 1 and col. 2, line 47 – col. 3, line 28.

Claims [c0016] and [c0017] are rejected with the same rationale as given for claim [c0004].
